U betcha. ☺

OK, this building is getting really eerie—time for me to go home, I guess! ☺

Yup!

If you're on the home page:

<http://www2.epa.gov/goldkingmine>

There's a "Press Releases" link at the bottom of the page, and that takes you here:

<http://www2.epa.gov/goldkingmine/press-releases-related-2015-release-gold-king-mine>

Then you'll see the August 12th statement. So, the direct link to it is this page:

<http://www2.epa.gov/goldkingmine/epa-statement-colorado-data-gold-king-mine-release>

So, it turned out to be “more or less” a press release, after all—really a press statement. But it fit best in this (press release) category.

Thanks,

Tim

You ALL rock just unbelievably!!!! ☺

OK, I think I'm going home now. Just checking last directions for Jeff Morin. He's SO great to be able to hand this off to in the morning.

Cheers,

Tim

Messaging and data are still coming for tonight.

Melissa will be sharing them shortly.

It still will need to be posted and sent out to media.

Thanks!

Looks like we will likely just push out CO data. Working on final language and data sets.

Will be in touch ASAP.

Really can't thank this team enough for all you're doing to support us!

Christy and Melissa,

Per our phone call tonight, Julia is standing by if we need to send out to media that we are releasing sampling data. If that is the plan, we will need confirmation that it has been posted before we can send out.

Also, Melissa, you said that I may need to sign off for the EOC. I'll alert Dana Tulis and Josh Woodyard who can give that approval. If I can't get them, then I'll sign off and we'll proceed forward and I'll explain it to them tomorrow. - George (cell 202-631-6957).
